FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM H. TAFT,
of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN, of New York.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

THAT is a terrific arraignment of the conditions existing in some parts of Kentucky which Governor WILLSON makes in his proclamation of reward for the assassins of the Negro family at Hickman, but who will say it is not deserved? Every one of the foul fiends deserves death here and damnation forever hereafter.—Frankfort State Journal.

Good boy! Not till the citizens of old Kentucky set obedience to the law above partisan politics will our State shake herself free from the deadly coils of anarchy. When the murderers of a family of five colored people are permitted to go unhunted and perhaps to repeat the wholesale assassination, what are we to expect? Arson and murder are growing to be so common in Kentucky that they are nearly becoming popular. In one small district of Menifee county four schoolhouses have been burned by incendiaries since September 1st. To publish a complete list of the capital crimes committed in Kentucky during the present year would appall the world. Immigrants are told that their lives are not safe in old Kentucky. Is that a lie or a joke?

THE entire West is now threatened with a shortage of cars and Democratic votes.

HURRAY! The Hon. EDGAR B. HAGER has taken the raging stump for KEHOE. Maybe the Hon. EDGAR thinks he sees a light.

MARSH HENRY insists that Mr. BRYAN, if elected President, could do no harm. The American voters will elect a President who does not desire to do any harm.

THE theories of BRYAN have been exploded by the test of experience. The American people will not throw away the solid certainties of today for the fallacies of tomorrow, especially when those fallacies have lost even their glitter.

ONE of the most unfortunate things connected with the great American game of politics is the propensity of some Republicans and some Democrats to get mad at each other. Why is this thus? Socially, morally and spiritually all are upon the same footing. Life is too short and too sweet to embitter it with irreconcilable hate and antagonisms. All the politics in the world is not worth the severance of the bond of one true friendship. Cut it out and join in the grand sweet song of harmony and happiness. Because the Democrats are benighted in their blind adherence to dead issues don't condemn them. Forgive them, for they know not what they do. The wily Nebraskan has cast his hypnotic spell upon them and they can't shake themselves loose from the fascination of his evil eye. But remember the dark Bryan days of 1896.

THE AWAKENING.

"Love is the wine of life," exclaimed the poet.
"And marriage is the morning after," added the cynic.

FAIRNESS OF TAFT.

Scrupulous in His Desire to Render Exact Justice.

REVIEWS OF COURTS MARTIAL

Refused to Approve or Disapprove Findings of Military Tribunals Until He Had Carefully Read the Evidence—A Case in Point.

When he was secretary of war Mr. Taft never unreservedly trusted to the judgment of courts martial upon offending officers to determine his action in approving or disapproving the findings of these military tribunals. He was scrupulous in insisting that all the evidence should be laid before him to be passed upon and weighed by him personally. No pressure of work could be too severe or lack of time too evident to prevent him from satisfying himself that exact justice had been done the accused, according to the evidence and the facts.

One evening long after the rest of the departments had closed Mr. Taft, at the end of an unusually hard day, took up a bundle of papers relating to the case of a lieutenant who was sentenced to dismissal. The chief of staff was there, and he suggested, with a view to saving Mr. Taft work: "I think that you will not need to go deeper into the case if you read the conclusion of the Judge Advocate's memorandum and my memorandum. The man is a bad egg. The army will be better off without him."

"No," said the secretary; "I always prefer to go through these cases myself."

The officer had failed to pay his debts. Carefully and slowly Mr. Taft read the evidence through to the end. When he finished he looked up and exclaimed, "But he lied about it!" Rapidly he dictated a note to be sent, with the papers, to the president and continued as he laid them aside: "He lied, as he admits, to lie out of it. I think the sentence should be carried out. There might have been some excuse for the other thing, but there could be none for the lie. It is time to stop this tendency among the officers who get into trouble. It must be discouraged for the honor of the service."

"I want to go over the rest of these myself," said he, indicating another pile of court martial papers. "I have done that sort of thing all my life, and I'd rather do it than take the judgment of some one else."

BIG AND BROAD.

Methodists Indorse the Candidacy of William H. Taft.

An unqualified approval of William H. Taft as a presidential candidate was given by the Rev. James Coote, D. D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Thompsonville, Conn., when he called at the headquarters of the Republican national committee. For years Dr. Coote has taken a prominent part in Methodist circles in New England and in New York, having been a presiding elder and occupied leading pulpits.

"No man has spoken so earnestly in favor of the great work that Christian missions are doing in the Philippines, in China and in the Orient generally as Mr. Taft," said Mr. Coote. "In an address at Yale University he emphasized that idea particularly, and on several other occasions he spoke enthusiastically of the good being done by aggressive Christian evangelicalism in the different countries which he visited. It seems to me that no evangelical Christian should hesitate to support Judge Taft. He is just as big and broad in his religious ideas as he is in his physical proportions. He can be trusted to do what is fair and right with all denominations."

"I am convinced that what Judge Taft has said on religious matters was not for political effect. He has gone hither and thither doing the work before him, and at the same time his keen observation and his sense of fairness have led him repeatedly to give expression to his appreciation of the work of Christian missions everywhere."

"In Thompsonville is one of the largest carpet manufacturing plants in the world," continued Dr. Coote. "During the last Democratic administration that establishment was compelled to close, and the thousands of employees were thrown out of work. A very large proportion of those had to leave the town. My observation is that the people in that section of the country remember that experience and that they do not care for another administration that is likely to result so disastrously."

To oppose revision of the tariff by the believers in protection to American wage earners and industries might be to invite its revision by Democratic believers in importing the products of cheap foreign labor.

Nevertheless, friends and brethren must be admitted that for twelve years Mr. Bryan's voice has constantly vibrated for his native land.

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

Many Important Measures Enacted by the Majority.

The Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth congresses will go down in history as record breakers because of the large number of important measures enacted, measures having directly to do with the great business interests of the country and standing between the people and corporate greed and oppression. The Fifty-ninth congress opened a new era in American legislation, giving emphasis to the fact that the constitution is amply sufficient for all the needs of the people, safeguarding their interests and furnishing them ample means of protection. The Fifty-ninth congress was a Republican congress, and all the great measures enacted by it were Republican measures, originating with the Republicans and passed by Republican votes.

There is still much to be done to perfect the work begun by the Fifty-ninth congress. Experience has demonstrated that a Democratic congress cannot be depended upon to work out any great system of reform. No reform in administration or in legislation has ever come about under a Democratic regime. As at present constituted the Democratic party is made up of too many isms to be safe in handling great questions of political economy. Two great questions will soon come up for legislation—a revision of the tariff and a remodeling of our currency system.

Twice since 1880 the Democrats have attempted tariff legislation, and twice the business of the country was brought to the verge of ruin and hundreds of thousands of workingmen were thrown out of employment. Twice within the last thirty years the Democratic party has set up its standard of monetary legislation. First it declared in favor of putting the printing presses to work in manufacturing greenbacks without limit and, second, by declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. No evidence has been furnished that the party has recanted from its stand for flat money. Is it safe to trust the party now?

MR. TAFT ON BANK GUARANTY.

Explodes Bryan's Pet Proposition in Speech at Minneapolis, Sept. 26.

My information with respect to the Oklahoma system is that it is developing as might be expected. I have a correspondent who is intimately acquainted with the conditions in Oklahoma. In a letter of Sept. 22, 1908, in speaking of the effect of the guaranty of deposit law, he uses the following language:

"Conditions in Oklahoma are growing worse than was expected on account of the recent decision there whereby it was decided that the bank commissioner has no right to refuse to grant a charter to parties proposing to organize a bank. As an instance, in a town of less than 500 people as many as four banks have been organized. Application is now in for the organization of a fourth bank in one town of only 470 population."

"Men whose past record proved them to be incompetent are engaging in the banking business and getting in control of banking institutions. I have knowledge of one instance where a man was engaged in business some years ago and failed. He went to another town and engaged in the same line of business in his wife's name, but conducted her affairs in such an unbusinesslike way that she failed. Some time afterward he went to Oklahoma territory and started a small state bank, but found he could not succeed and sold to other parties and left the territory. A few months ago, however, he returned and started another state bank, advertising that the depositors are secured under the state guaranty law, and after sixty days' operation he now has over $100,000 deposits. I have it from the best authority that he now proposes to start fifteen new state banks throughout the state, two of which have already been organized and one now doing business."

Bryan declared for small appropriations and for sympathy with the suffering farmer. It isn't the size, but the purpose and the honest expenditure of appropriations, that counts, and the greater the purchasing and consuming power of the rest of the commonwealth the better off is the farmer.

"Shall the people rule?" It is a curious outgrowth of democracy that Bryanism should mean the quiescence of paternalism. If all the Bryan theories—abandoned, present and possible—could be put into practice, the United States would be Russified.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN.

PUBLIC INSPECTION INVITED
FROM 8 A.M. TO 4 P.M.
SATURDAYS EXCEPTED
LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs—with out drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told? Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick women are asked to write?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

Getting Ready For Taft and Property.

One of the leading mercantile houses of New York city has purchased a large quantity of real estate with the view of adding to its present quarters, a member of the firm saying that he looked forward to greater prosperity than ever before to follow upon the election of Mr. Taft to the presidency.

Judge Taft has steadily grown on the country since his nomination. His judicial poise, his sobriety of utterance and his attitude of deep responsibility have all impressed the country. They are what is wanted to give confidence in a period of doubt and depression.

S. M. Felton, president of the Mexican Central railroad, who was one of Mr. Taft's visitors last week, said in an interview:

"In my judgment the election of Mr. Taft is of the utmost importance to railroad men as a class, because it means the restoration of confidence, which is necessary before we can hope for a permanent revival of business.

The great trouble with the railroads has been their inability to raise the necessary money with which to carry on extensions and improvements. To get this money there must be confidence on the part of the investing public, and this confidence will certainly be secured by the election of Judge Taft."

The campaign has reached the point where it is wise to make the personality of Mr. Taft known and familiar over the country. The campaign is sparked by its sober discussion and the manifest movement of the great current of public opinion toward a conservative desire to see the great issues now opening handled with care, consideration and a judicial scrutiny.

Judge Taft is a man of action, combative and aggressive. He appeals to the precise conditions of the campaign. He has the qualities which draw men to him in times like these. The speechmaking campaign on which he recently entered will not only win votes by arousing public interest, but it will add to the strength of the Republican party in every doubtful state he visits

by showing the people a man they can trust.

He means what he says, and he says what is right," is the way that a plainman voiced his view of Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate for president, during Mr. Taft's recent visit to South Dakota. There's a whole platform in those eleven short Saxon words, and it is the platform of the American people.

Mr. Bryan having been conclusively proved to be a dreamer, it behoves every voter to see that he is prevented from indulging in any nightmares at the expense of the country.

"My views are well known!" shouts

Mr. Bryan. Will the gentleman kindly give the vintage—1896, 1900 or 1908?

"The event has proved what a colossal failure Bryan would have been."

There are the argument and proof of the past as a warning in the present against intrusting the health of the future to Bryan nostrums.

The wage earning voters of the country have twice enjoined Bryan from the presidency. This year they will make the injunction permanent.

"Wisdom and moral courage are the two qualities which make a great president," declares Mr. Roosevelt. He has proved that he possesses both.

Judge Taft exhibited both when on the bench and when secretary of war, and he will carry both into the White House.

Not confiscation, but regulation, is the Taft remedy for railway abuses.

Judge Taft is the candidate not of a class, but of a great party, and he will be president of an entire people.

No lawlessness, no injustice—that is the clear and strong attitude of Judge

Taft toward capital and toward labor.

The Roosevelt heritage has only increased in value since the living testator denied the pretensions of Claimant

Bryan.

Mr. Bryan says the stars in their courses are fighting for him

MRS. SCOTT COLLINS.

Mrs. Lela Collins, wife of Mr. Scott Collins, one of Mayslick's well-known and prominent citizens, died suddenly at the family home at that place at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mrs. Collins was dressing when she was stricken ill, her death resulting shortly after, heart disease being attributed as the cause of her sudden demise.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. Jonas Myall, a member of one of Mason county's prominent families, and was most highly esteemed for her refinement of character and noble womanhood.

She was 41 years of age and is survived by her husband and two children.

The funeral will take place from the Christian Church at Mayslick tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock with services by the Rev. George E. Taubman of Lexington.

The interment will be in Mayslick Cemetery.

MISS MARY KIRK.

Miss Mary Kirk, one of this city's venerable and highly respected citizens, died last afternoon at her home in West Third street, after a long illness from a complication of diseases, aged 70 years.

She leaves surviving her one sister, Mrs. Alice E. Hunt; two nieces, Miss Angie Mitchell and Mrs. C. L. Sallee of this city, and many other relatives in Mason county.

Miss Kirk was a life-long member of the First M. E. Church, South, and was loved and revered by all who knew her.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence, with services by Rev. B. F. Chatham of the First M. E. Church, South.
